1680

OCT 23 1901

No. 97.

Misc.

WHAT IS THE

Woman's Union Missionary Society

ORGANIZED 1860?

Woman's Union Missionary Society

OF AMERICA

FOR HEATHEN LANDS.

THIS is the oldest Woman's Foreign Missionary Organization in America. It was planned April, 1860, organized November, 1860, and incorporated February, 1861.

It is undenominational, sending out single women to Christianize heathen women. It has established mission centres in Burmah, India, China, Japan Greece, and Cyprus. It sustains Bible Readers, Boarding and Day schools, Orphanages, Dispensary and Hospital work.

It was the first American society to open zenana work in India. It has maintained increasing missions in Calcutta, Allahabad, Cawnpore, and Jhansi, where thousands yearly are taught the Way of Life.

Its Boarding school in Japan was the first of its kind in that Empire, and in this school hundreds of girls have been fitted for teachers, evangelists, or other positions of usefulness.

The Margaret Williamson Hospital in Shanghai was the first organized there for women and children, and thousands yearly receive ministrations from a skillful staff of medical missionaries. The Mary S. Ackerman-Hoyt Hospital at Jhansi is the only one in that section of India.

The officers of this Society are unsalaried, and the work at home is conducted in the most economical manner.

Would you not like to spread the work of a successful association, whose motto is, "All for Christ?"

Annual Membership Fee, - -	$1.00
Life Membership, - - - -	50.00
Life Membership for Children, -	25.00

Amount pledged from a Mission Band, $20 or more.

Subscription price of the "MISSIONARY LINK," the monthly organ of the Woman's Union Missionary Society, 50 cents.

Office of the WOMAN'S UNION MISSIONARY SOCIETY, 67 Bible House, New York.

S. D. D.